

WORLD OF RADIO #1025, produced Feb. 23, 2000 by Glenn Hauser

- *Our Saturday broadcast on WWCN 12160 moves from 2030 to 1730 next week or this
- *Russia in Spanish blocks us on 9475, but moving to 15685 next week, Thursdays at 2130; all WWCN airings one UT hour earlier from April 2
- *Iran denies jamming VOA and BBC; diminishes anyway after elections
- *Afghanistan switches frequencies, resumes English
- *R. Kurdistan, V. of the Kurdistan Socialist Democratic Party; V. of Independence, R. of the Conservative Party of Kurdistan, on 4 MHz; and hearable at <http://home.clara.net/dkernick>
- *Israel's English frequency at 0500 well heard in Australia
- *Dates for DST this year in Israel, longer than ever; when SW will be one UT hour earlier
- *BBC and Merlin sign deal to move Oman relay from Masirah Island to Al-Ashkharah on the mainland by Nov 2002
- *BBC WS previews: The Bitter Pill; Off the Shelf: Beowulf; Talking Peace; Composer of the Month: Weill; Performance: Robeson
- *BBC WS programme shakeup April 2 including cancelling Farming World
- *Emerald Radio from Ireland back on WWCN March 27-April 2
- *Norway digital SW tests again cause wide interference
- *Croatian Radio relays via Germany back on 9 MHz after winter on 7
- *R. Ukraine International's new English schedule we extracted
- *Rai, Italy news replaced by strike grievances of journalists
- *V. of Mediterranean, Malta new English schedule
- *R. Liberia International on 5000 instead of 5100
- *Star Radio, Liberia, running out of funding and may close at Febend [suggestions for other funding to libe@atge.automail.com]
- *WOR 1025, P O Box 1684, Enid OK 73702, USA; wghauser@yahoo.com or fax if really necessary 1-580-233-2948 attn Hauser; check website <https://www.angelfire.com/ok/worldofradio> for WOR schedules, DX Listening Digest archive, and much more
- *Thanks to Jim Wishner for financial support
- *Equatorial Guinea getting Chinese aid to improve SW
- *Survey of opposition radios to Eritrea, Ethiopia
- *New SW from Somalia: from Baidoa; and R. Banaadir, Mogadishu
- *Iain Christie, director of R. Mozambique English, died
- *R. Integracion, Peru on 59 meters
- *Spikes from Anguilla fixed, but power cut due to bad hose
- *R. Barahona, Dominican Republic, back on different frequency
- *James Latham back at RFPI, resuming Millennium Dreams, and Global Community Forum including Far Right Radio Review from Feb 24
- *RFPI website again updated frequently: <http://www.rfpi.org>
- *Nova Scotia Kitchen Party suddenly shows on CBC and RCI
- *Polish staff about to be eliminated at VOA set up <http://members.aol.com/savevoa/index.html>
- *WYFR heard on very strange mixing product
- *WBCQ-2 started Feb 21, but transmitter down; back Feb 24?
- *WBCQ-2 may have bad reception in Europe due to appalling buzzing
- *Big Steve Cole's surgery went well
- *Deepest condolences to colleague Marie Lamb, whose father died Feb 19

*Bob Hite, Sr., Lone Ranger announcer, died at 86
*Two Oklahoma public radio stations now stream: all classical <http://www.kcscfm.com> and <http://www.kosu.org>
*Tijuana has new FM and streaming classical <http://www.xlnc1.org>
*Darwin could be using radiating load instead of dummy load for tests
*Australian Senate committee to report by April 4 on allowing foreign relays on SW
*RFA Saipan and Tinian not synchronized; via different feed circuits?
*10m repeater W10J in Massachusetts hosts worldwide contacts; see
<http://www.miniequine.com>
*Propagation outlook from Ottawa, Feb 16
*Major storm missed earth Feb 20
*Propagation outlook from Boulder, Feb 22; flux peak 205
*Check our website <https://www.angelfire.com/ok/worldofradio>
*Standard disclaimer
*Glenn Hauser concluding World of Radio 1025 ###